

Yacht Racing on the Adirondack Lakes Interests Many Visitors to the Great North Woods.

Upper St. Regis, N. Y., July 29 (Special).-The fishing in Canadian waters has attracted more men from the St. Regis chain of lakes, and vesterday a party including Simeon J. Drake, William Thompson, Lewis Thompson, Paul Smith, jr., H. H. Benedict, jr., Ernest Ryle and Hammond Harding, of New-York, started on a week's fishing trip for bass and trout in the one hundred thousand acre preserve of the Waubinining Club, in the Kippewa Indian Territory of Canada. This club, which is a new organization, is composed largely of New-York men. Coleman Carnegie, a nephew of Andrew Carnegie, now in camp at Mountain Pond, is a member of the organization. Dr. Walter B. James and William Hall Penfold, of New-York, and Colonel Jacob C. R. Peabody, of Boston, returned Tuesday from the Restigouche River, Canada, where they have been fishing for salmen. They had good luck. The preliminary races of the St. Regis Yacht Club were sailed Wednesday and Friday. Among the boats taking part were Commodore Anson Phelps Stokes's Shadow, F. L. Slade's Maita. Thomas Dixon's Aquia, L. S. Thompson's Flying Fritz, George H. Earle's Elfwere, George Townsend's new beat, and the Peek-a-Boo, leased this year by James J. Hill. Commodore and Mrs. Stokes arrived in camp

this week, as did George H. Earle. Joseph B. Dickson, who has arrived in the W. W. McAlpin camp, is entertaining a party

Work on the new Japanese camp of F. W. Vanderbilt is now nearly complete. The construction work is done, and the Japanese artists are now finishing the decorations. Mr. Vanderbilt is now at Newport with Mrs. Vanderbilt. The camp will be ready for their occupancy on August 10. A new launch recently purchased by Mr. Vanderbilt has arrived.

Miss R. A. Polhemus is entertaining her sister, Mrs. Courtland P. Dixon and other frineds at her camp on Spitfire Lake. The Grace Mitchell camp on Spitfire has been leased for the season by Mr. and Mrs. Michael M. Van Beuren, of New-York, and Mrs. C. C. K. Scoville and the Misses Scoville, of New-York, have taken the Emerson camp on the same lake, for the balance of the season. Mrs. N. F. McCormick and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley McCormick, of Chicago, arweed this week at the McCormick camp on the upper lake. Robert Garrett, of Baltimore, has occupied his camp.

W. P. Thompson, of Newport, is visiting at the camp of his brother, L. S. Thompson.

THE AMPERSAND.

Ampersand, N. Y., July 29 (Special).-Many of the hotel guests are good bridge whist players, for the game has been played every evening by young and old gathered about tables in the spaclous hotel parlors. Mrs. E. M. Johnson, Mrs. M. F. Crouch, Miss H. B. Johnson, Miss Miller, J. Seaver Page and G. W. Miller, of New-York, are among the exceptionally good players. J. Seaver Page is also one of the good golf players at the hotel this season, and his games with James J. Robinson, of New-York, are followed with much interest by the other guests. Mrs. E. M. Johnson, Miss Miller and Master George W. Miller are recent arrivals who devote much time to the game. Miss Florence N. Ayres, of Philadelphia, who has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Milton C. Work, of Philadelphia, returned home this week. Miss Ayres is an expert golf player. and her friends are confident that under favorable weather conditions she would have succeeded in lowering the record for the Ampersand course. Miss Roma Huselton, of Pittsburg, who is also an expert golf player, is somewhat handicapped in her playing this season by injuries received in the train wreck near Harrisburg, Penn., a short time ago. W. R. Huselton has joined his sister at the hotel, and Dr. and Mrs.

William Halpin, chairman of the Republican State Committee, spent a few days at the Ampersand recently. Mrs. J. Kennedy Tod, of New-York, who is here, was pleasantly reminded New-York, who is here, was pleasantly reminded of her birthday anniversary last Sunday by flowers and other gifts from Mr. Tod and her friends in New-York. Mrs. Tod may build a camp near the hotel. Mrs. T. E. Weldersein, r., is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Milton C. Work at their Wigwam cottage. F. W. Duryea, of New-York, has joined Mrs. Duryea at Hillcrest cottage, and is entertaining his friend, F. S. Battershall, of New-York.

Miss Mary Rhoades has joined her mother and cottage, and is entertaining his friend, F. S. Battershall, of New-York.

Miss Mary Rhoades has joined her mother and sister. Mrs. Joshua Rhoades and Miss Anna Rhoades, of Pittsburg, at Glenmere cottage, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Wood and children, of New-York, have occupied Rockfern cottage.

Mrs. E. G. W. Rietz, of Chicago, widow of Edward Rietz, for years a leader in the lumbering interests of the West, as a member of the firm of Charles Rietz & Bros., is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Moulton, wife of George S. Moulton, manager of the Ampersand. Mrs. Rietz will spend the month of August here.

A coaching party from Lake Placid, under the direction of Dr. Irving H. Hance, of Lakewood, N. J., visited the Ampersand a few days ago, and Daniel M. Coffin, of New-York, who is roughing it through the mountains with a guide, ing it through the mountains with a guide, Recent arrivals include Andrew Miller, man-Recent arrivals include Andrew Amer. Managing Editor of "Life"; Mrs. James M. Jenkins and her son, Alfred W. Jenkins, G. W. Miller, F. E. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. M. Grundner, Miss Mary Grundner, Graham Douglas, L. Hallock, jr., Mrs. A. E. Allin and her son, F. Brevort

Mrs. George H. Butler and Miss A. H.

THE STEVENS HOUSE.

Lake Placid, N. Y., July 29 (Special).-This week has been replete with golf events. The climax, however, was reached yesterday, when a fancy dress kickers' handicap tournament was held. In this event it was hits made by the costumes of contestants that counted fully as much as the hits of the players themselves. It was one of the conditions of the match that each player entered wear some odd, unusual garment. The ingenuity displayed was surprising. John J. Dunn, of London, the golf professional here this year, added much to the merriment of the occasion with his bagpipe and Scottish kilts. The committee of judges was composed of Rear Admiral Harry Knox, of Washington; Commodore Charles N. Morgan, of New-York, and the Rev. J. J. Moore, of Philadelphia. All the golf events of the week have been marked by good playing, but perhaps the most interest attended the playing off of a tie on Monday between W. R. Lyman, F. H. Campion, R. H. Miller and Victor Young. It resulted in a victory for Mr. Campion.

Commodore Charles N. Morgan is hard at work getting the new Lake Placid Yacht Club on a working basis. Temporary quarters for the club are now being fitted up in the big hotel boathouse, but the members hope another sea-son to be able to erect a new clubbouse on land of their own on the lake shore, near the hotel. The membership committee of which George A. Stevens is chairman, has been completed by the choice of John H. Prall and John S. Naylor. Mr. Prall and William R. Lyman will also serve on the house committee, of which W. J. McConvill is chairman.

George A. Stevens, proprietor of the Stevens House, returned early this week from Ogdens-burg, where he and Mrs. Stevens have been vis-the Ampersand team.

There was an interesting ball game Wednes-day between the Stevens House cottagers and Ampersand team.

Among the recent arrivals from New-York are:
Mr. and Mrs. Jay T. Knecht, Mrs. Katharine
Tobsy, C. D. Chapman, Miss L. H. Southack,
Miss P. T. Wright, the Rev. P. Turner, the Rev.
J. P. Turner, Mrs. H. L. Thompson, Miss A. J.

PAUL SMITH'S.

Paul Smith's, N. Y., July 29 (Special).-This hotel is the objective point of many persons coming into the Adirondacks in automobiles This method of getting into the mountains, at first ventured by a daring few, is now becoming Judge and Mrs. William K. Townsend and their son, George Townsend, came through from New-Haven in a big high power road machine. Bayard Dominick, of New-York, also came in an automobile to join his York, also came in an automobile to join his son-in-law, H. Alexander Smith, who has one of the hotel cottages here. Mrs. S. E. Fuller and Miss Alice Fuller, of New-York, have their automobile here, and Dr. G. Fales Baker, of Philadelphia, has a high power machine of his in use here. J. E. Palmer, who is coming in his automobile from Middleton, Conn., will occupy one of the hotel cottages. Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Milliken, who are now on the road from New-York in their automobile, are expected to-day.

day.

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Jenkins, of New-York, arrived this week at the Flower cottage, which they have taken for the season. Their

Brown, Mrs. W. J. Thompson, Miss Hattie | The Throngs of Summer Residents in Cottage, Camp and Hotel Are Now at Their Height, and All Are Enjoying the Beauties of Nature and the Invigorating Influences of the Wilderness, WHITEFACE INN.

Lake Placid, N. Y., July 29 (Special).-A progressive euchre, organized by Harrington Mills, him: C. F. Alton, Harrington Mills, Benjamin I. Ward, Harry C. Dangler and John G. Prail.

Mrs. Mary H. T. Wood, Miss Mabel F. Wood and Miss Helen A. Travers, of Cambridge, Mass, who are driving through the mountains, have been spending a few days at the Ruisseaumont. An enjoyable dinner party was held here a few days ago by Mrs. R. G. Bush, Miss Kate Barnum, Aliss E. E. Elliott and Miss Ella M. Hall, of New-York, who are in camp near the hotel. Mr. and Mrs. J. Lufton Mason, of New-York, are the guests of John H. Prail, at Echo Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Corinth and Miss Corinth, of New-York, who have been touring through Canada, are at the Ruisseaumont for the rest of the season.

H. La Bouisse, of New-Orleans. The young people enjoyed themselves immensely. There was also an enjoyable excursion to Vergennes yesterday, in which many of the guests took part. A tennis tournament has been in progress all the week. Ladies' singles, men's singles and mixed doubles have been played. Among those taking part were Miss Lloyd, Miss Lewis, Miss Elfrida De Renne, Miss Audrey De Renne, Miss A. Robinson, Miss Ruth Clary, Miss Susan Hunn, Miss Pauline Robinson, Miss Violet Johnson, Miss Trotter, Miss Adams, John Buck, Frank Bulley, Samuel K. Probasco, James son, Miss Trotter, Miss Adams, John Buck, Frank Bulley, Samuel K. Probasco, James Crary, C. Coatsworth, J. Milleken and Shonto Johnson. There has been some good golf play-ing lately by Mr. Probasco, Dr. Beverly Robin-son, H. R. La Boulsse, A. Davis Wells, Marcus T. Hunn and others. Devereaux Emmett, of Dwight Dowley, F. N. E. Purchase, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cromlein, F. Klingman, T. A. Quinlan, P. J. Foley, of Boston, and Mr. and Mrs. C. Beecher, of St. Louis.

THE ALGONQUIN.

Algonquin, N. Y., July 29 (Special).-Thomas Thedford and Miss Helen Thedford, of New-York, have joined their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thedford, who are at the Algonquin for the summer. S. T. Sharp and C. Beaugary, of Philadelphia, who are among recent arrivals Philadelphia, who are among recent arrivals here, are occupying a tent near the hotel. Mrs. M. T. Jones and Mrs. W. E. Jones, of Houston, Texas, have joined friends in the Colonial cottage. The Misses Annie and Louise Peyser, of New-York, this week joined Mrs. Eugene Philip Peyser at the Algonquin. Other arrivals of the week include Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Fitzpatrick, of New-York, Miss L. H. Southard and Miss F. I. Wright, of Trenton, N. J.; Philip I. James, Williamsburg, Mass., and H. B. Colburn, New-York.

The Saturday night hops have been resumed. Canoeing is popular among the young ladies at the Algonquin. Miss Conger, of New-York, is an expert in the management of the cranky craft.

THE WHILE MOUNTAINS.

Horses Trained to Regard Automobiles as Friends.

Bretton Woods, N. H., July 29 (Special),-The popularity of Bretton Woods for mototr parties is enhanced by the fact that all the horses in its stables have been put through a high school course of training with the automobile. The horses are led up to motor cars in the stableyard, allowed to smell and investigate the odorous machine to their heart's content, after which they are fed outs from the toneau and finally led behind the slow moving car. Not one horse has failed to respond to his treatment. Among New-Yorkers returning to Mount Washington for the season are John Tonnele and Miss Tonnele, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. King. jr., Mrs. N. Hall and Mrs. S. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Lawrence, Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Spaulding, M. G. Maralli and M. E. Caralli. New-York arrivals by motor include Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cowles, who were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Marks, of Akron, Ohio.

In honor of Mrs. Clarence Seamans, who left here with Mr. Seamans and Miss Dorothy on the following day for her country place on Long Island, Mrs. J. Blake White gave a bridge party at the Mount Washington on Monday evening. Charles J. Glidden has been confined to his room with a slight cold, but hopes to be able to initiate C. W. Barron's new Mercedes car, which is due to arive this week. Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Crowell, of New-York, are enjoying a few days at the Mount Pleasant House.

There is much interest at Bretton Woods over the national game, and on Saturday the two watches of bell boys of the two hotels played a spirited game, which was won by Mount Pleasant, by a score of 17 to 11. Monday the orchestras of the two hotels met on the diamond, and on Thursday the bell boys were gain pitted against each other. There is much friendly rivalry between these two houses, and the array of guests on either side makes a formidable gallery.

Mrs. John J. Tucker and Miss Hendrix, C. T. Schulte, K. A. iWeling and G. C. Wieling, Mrs. T. E. Studley and Mrs. Hendrickson, all of New-York, are at the Mount Pleasant House. Other New-York arrivals at the Mount Washington Hotel include Mr. and Mrs. D. Willis James, of New-York, who bring their own horses and carriages; Mrs. James M. Beek, Miss Beatrice Beek and Miss Hawkins for a stay, and Miss Ellen King, who spent last season at Bretton Woods.

There is much horseback riding at Bretton Woods, where S. J. Valenty has a string of as fine saddlers as one often sees. There are innumerable fascinating roads and bridle paths in numerable fascinating roads and the partial the vicinity of Bretton Woods. Dancing is the favored amusement of an evening with the young people, and there is nowhere a better opportunity for the pastime than in the two large ballrooms of the Bretton Woods Hotel.

portunity for the pastime than make ballrooms of the Bretton Woods Hotel.

The Waumbek at Jefferson is entertaining a houseful of guests, and nearly every cottage on the great estate is also occupied. At no time during the recent hot wave was Jefferson uncomfortable. On the contrary, it was delightfully cool on the slope of Mount Starr King. Waumbek will have no baseball team this year, so golf and tennis will bid for popularity. The Waumbek links, of eighteen holes, were never in better condition. The Rev. Charles H. Babcock, of New-York, is a guest for some weeks at the Waumbek, and is an enthusiastic golfer. The Misses Preston are having great success with their dancing classes for children, and the with their dancing classes for children, and the little ones are making fine progress under their tutorship. Mrs. John J. Johnson, of New-York, is entertaining here her daughter, Mrs. Morrell, of Philadelphia.

of Philadelphia.

Trap shooting is a favored form of amusement at the Waumbek, and at the first shoot of the season a match of thirty birds each was shot eason a match of thirty birds each was shot by C. V. Murphy, A. J. Murphy, A. T. Compton, r., and Dr. Lindley, all of New-York.

The regular Saturday handicap was played ast week on the Waumbek golf links, with C. t. Gale bringing in the lowest score, Si.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Waters and Miss Miriam Vectors of New-York are season guests at the Mr. and Mrs. Henry Waters and Miss Miriam Waters, of New-York, are season guests at the Agassiz, Bethlehem. Late arrivals at the Howard House, Bethlehem, from New-York, Include B. C. Thorn, Miss C. Barr, Miss Selena Lawrence, Miss D. Leverich and Miss H. A. Hewlett. Mr. and Mrs. P. Ward, of New-York, are at the Alpine, Bethlehem Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Mosher and two sons, of New-York, have arrived at the Arlington, Bethlehem. The first full dress ball of the Bethlehem season was given on Saturday evening at the Sinclair House, where several hundred guests from other town hotels were invited. Preceding the dancing a concert was given on the veranda by dancing a concert was given on the veranda by dancing a concert was given on the veranda by the Bethlehem Cadet Band.

Mrs. L. V. Hubbard and Miss Hubbard, of New-York, are enjoying life at the Hampshire Inn. Colebrook. Dixville Notch is receiving a large New-York patronage this season. The glorious scenery and delicious air, with total immunity from hay fever, combine to make it one of the most attractive resorts in the country.

A. H. Kirkpatrick, of New-York, has joined his family at the Forest Hill Hotel, Franconia. Mrs. Calvin S. May and Miss Clara Webster, of Brooklyn, are at the same hotel. Miss Emily Erdtmann, of Brooklyn, has joined the Mollenhauer party at Franconia Inn. Prominent New-York guests at the Sunset Hill House, Sugar Hill, are Chief Justice Marcus P. Knowlton, of the Supreme Court, with Mrs. and Miss Knowlton and their friends, General and Mrs. Xenophon Wheeler, of Chattanooga, Tenn. At the Look Off, Sugar Hill, are Mrs. Joseph Pederson. Mrs. H. L. Parker and Miss A. L. Franklin, of Brooklyn. Mrs. R. H. P. Durkee, of the Profile House, gave a large bridge party in her apartments on Monday evening. A. H. Kirkpatrick, of New-York, has joined

POLO AT BERNARDSVILLE

Bernardsville, N. J., July 29.-Polo is expected to furnish ample entertainment for the summer guests here for the next few weeks. The summer colony includes in its membership some of the most expert polo devotees in the country, and the club they formed some years ago has given many interesting exhibitions. The Somerset Country Club is its title, and the polo field is only a short Club is its title, and the polo field is only a short distance from the Claremont Road and in the heart of the mountain region. The Somersets last Saturday played the Orange team here and won by a score of 7½ to 4.

The young people at the Somerset lun are having many receptions, drives and musicals. Changeroned by Mrs. W. M. Jonshow, then lone decay of them embarked in a farmer's havreck hast Sunday evening and drove to Morrishuwa where supper was served.

Robert D. Graham, E. T. H. Talmage, Chrence Blair Mitchell and Waiter P. Bilss have leased a small hotel at West Chop, Martha's Vineyard, and centwed there with their families this week. They will occupy it for one month and return to their country estates here kite in August. 4 size flar scheme was tried last year and proved Mr. and Mrs. George A. Mumford, of New-York, were guests at the Somerset Inn for a few days this week. Mr. and Mrs. John M. Dillon, at their country home, Overleigh, have hed a house party for some weeks, of whom Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Downing, of Washington, and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Russell, of New-York, were members.

POCONO GOLFERS EAGER

Country Club Offers Prize Which Stimulates Players.

Mount Pocono, Penn., July 25 (Special).-The Mount Pocono Golf and Country Club has purchased an elegant silver golf cup, which will be presented to the person doing the course in the least number of strokes. The players are practising with a view to winning it. It is on exhibition at the Pocono Mountain House and is exciting much curosity. The course is proving re and more popular because it can be reached by New-York players so easily by means of the fast express trains of the Lackawanna Railroad. A golf tournament was held at the Park House recently. Meiville Coursen, of Newark, N. J., was the winner. Granville W. Herman, who is president of the Parkside Golf Club, and is an honored member of the Eastern Parkway Club, of Brooklyn, presented the cup.

In the recent boating carnival held on Pocon Pines Lake about thirty boats were tastefully they formed in line, boat attached to boat, extending more than a quarter of a mile. Fireworks were set off on Comfort Island. The lake, always beautiful, was under a full moon, and with the illuminated boats and bursting fireworks was especially beautiful. The prize for the best decorated boat was given to Dr. Corson. The weather all the week has been ideal, and the summer folks have been enjoying outdoor life to the fullest ex-tent. Tennis, golf. fishing, riding, driving and mountain climbing are occupying much of their mountain climbing are occupying much of their time.

A pretty ball was held recently in the dining hall of the Montanesca, and at the same time an interesting progressive euchre attracted the attention of many in the reception hall. This resort is popular for its elaborate Sunday dinners. W. L. Robbins and R. S. Beale, of New-York, are at the Montanesca. Miss Browne, of London, Miss Riley, Miss Margaret, Miss Julia, Miss Rose and Mr. Charles Riley, of New-York, are at the Belmont. Miss C. A. Seely and Miss Grace E. Plerce, of Bridgeport, Conn., are at the Mount Pleasunt House. Mr. and Mrs. Charles V. Skoos. of New-York, are at the Wiscasset Cottage. J. E. Hartz, of Brooklyn, has made the Pocono Mountain House his headquarters. Harold Best has joined the New York contingent at the Chalmont. E. C. Birnbaum, proprietor of the Galdino Manufacturing Company, of New-York, is at the Park House. He is accompanied by Mrs. and Miss Birnbaum and Miss Wagner. His son, W. F. Birnbaum, who has just returned from Heidelberg, spent a few days with them.

H. A. Sherman, manager of the religious literature department of Charles Scribner's Sons, and president of the school board, District No. 37. of New-York, is spending his annual summer outing on the Pocono plateau. He is accompanied by Mr, and Mrs. Charles H. Rue, the Misses Tenle and Florence Rue, Mrs. Charles Garretson and Warren and Karl Garretson.

WATER GAP STRAW RIDES.

Fun and Frolic on the Delaware-Many Campers Afield.

Delaware Water Gap, Penn., July 29 (Special).-The sweltering heat of the cities has sent still greater crowds hither. Bright skies have prevailed all the week, and there has been no lack of outdoor sports. The golf course is now a lively scene every hour in the day. The tennis courts, too, are receiving a good bit of attention, and some of the men at the Glenwood House are wielding the racquet daily in order to perfect a team to challenge Stroudsburg.

In order to create a little excitement six you men who are boarding at the Forest House im Friday, mounted on mules. They failed to accomplish anything, as the mules were all of the same disposition as Maud, and would not "do stunts." Straw rides are popular. No less than two or three start from the Gap nightly for trips to Craig Meadows. Bartonsville, Analomink or Stroudsburg. On Silver Lake there are numerous the Charract House, the Glenwood and the Kitta-tinny are attracting crowds. Arrangements are now under way to give the annual masquerade ball of the Glenwood House soon.

The Water Gap is a favorite place for campers, and there are no less than twenty of these folly and there are no less than twenty of these folly parties.

The bathing beach is attracting a large number of people, and the steamer is carrying a full lead of passengers each trip. Mrs. J. Proal and daughter and Miss J. Littell, of East Orange, are at the Glenwood. Mr. and Mrs. Charles McCarthy, of New-York, are at the Gan Yiew. Miss Marie I. Conway and Miss Margaret Conway, of New-Yors and Brooklyn, respectively, are at the Riverside. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tag. Miss Florence Tag and Walter Tag. of Brooklyn, are registered at the River View House. Mrs. Thomas F. Russell, Miss Anna Russell and Joseph A. Russell, of New-York, are at the Willow Dell. Miss Florence Heselbach, of New-York, is at the Forest House.

BASEBALL AT BUSHKILL

Bushkill, Penn., July 29 (Special).-With the arrival of many visitors euchre parties, whist parties, dances, luncheons, balls and dinner parties are held more and more frequently. One of the leading social affairs at this resort this week was the opening of Rascal Hall at the Ridge View

The men of the Echo Lake House formed a ball

The men of the Echo Lake House formed a ball team and challenged the Davidson School team Thursday morning. The game was played Friday afternoon and ended with a score of 18 to 16 in favor of the Echo Lake House team.

Mrs. Reyder, of Brooklyn, is at the Ridge View House. Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Sackett and Miss Ruth E. Sackett, of New-York, are at the Peters House. Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Silverman and daughter are among the New-Yorkers registered at the Echo Lake House. Miss Lucia L. Stilman, of Brooklyn, is at the New Onk Grove House. Mrs. Samuel Valentine, of Brooklyn, is at the Mountain Breeze Cottage.

STROUDSBURG'S FESTIVAL Stroudsburg, Penn., July 29 (Special).-Ideal

weather has had much to do with the large increase of attraction in outdoor life. Both the links of the Highland Country Club and the tennis courts of all the hotels present a lively appearance at any hour of the day. The All-Collegiates recently defeated a team from the Water Gap in a game of baseball by a score of 7 to 3. It was an exciting contest throughout, and each side had its rooters. A festival and fair was held this week. It took place at the Courthouse Square. Another social affair was the dance given by Miss Margaret Erwin at her summer cottage in honor of her friend Miss Caldwell, of Boston. The house was tastefully decorated.

decorated.

Charles F. Rabell, of New-York, is at the Highland Dell. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stein, Caroline D. Fred A. Olga E. and Henry G. Stein, of New-York, are at the Prospect House.

Mrs. J. G. Gove and Mrs. S. S. Miller, of New-York, are here. Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Cornell, R. S. Cornell and Santuel H. Cornell are at the Highland Inn. Mrs. Sarah Graham is at the Pennlyn.

SHARON SPRINGS KISS A FINE

Sharon Springs, N. Y., July 29 (Special). - There is in unusual number of young people at Sharen Springs this season, and as a consequence the village is especially gay. On Friday evening a most enjoyable progressive euchre was given at the New-York House, at which Miss Laura Sticht and Miss Ida Grossmayer carried off the women's prizes and Mr. Ahrend and Mr. Effinger won the by Miss Goldberg and Captain Barley.

The social event of the week was the charity whist given at the Union for the benefit of the Labanon Hospital, of New-York City, on Wednesday afterneon, the following were the prize whites in the order named: Charles Mayer, F Hersfeld. Mrs. J. Levy, Miss Loria, Mrs. A. Hammerschlag.

FRANCIS TRUDEAU (AT THE TILLER), MISS JOSEPHINE SCOVILLE AND L. S. TREADWELL ON MR. TRUDEAU'S PONTOON AT PAUL SMITH'S.

York, has been spending a few days with his family at his camp near the hotel. The ladies have begun their regular meetings to sew for the fair for the benefit of the Trudeau Cottage Sanatorium.

This week the season at the Casino opened.

This week the season at the Casalo of the bowling alleys have been well patronized. The hotel baseball team also played some interesting games with teams from Bloomingdale, Saranac Lake and Loon Lake. The Bloomingdale, Saranac Lake and Loon Lake.

Elizabethtown, N. Y., July 29 (Special).-Guests at the Windsor are now interested in the contests for the cups offered by the Cobble Hill Golf Club. On Thursday the first cup tournament of the season was won by the Rev. J. Backus, who is at his cottage near the hotel. On Monday there will be a driving contest open to men, and on Wednesday a similar contest for women. August 5 is the date set for play for the Garondah Cup, presented by L. H. Hyde, of New-York. This is an open event. On October 12 two cups will be played for by mixed foursome, and on August 14 the contest for the Windsor Cup, the big open event of the season, takes place.

Windsor Cup, the big open event of the season, takes place.

Many of the oldtime guests are interested in the forthcoming work of George T. Brown, a book of 500 pages, entitled "Pleasant Valley, a History of Elizabethtown." The work, which appears in about two weeks, contains over 500 pages of interesting facts about this pleasant little Adirondack town.

George Wilson, secretary of the New-York Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Wilson are among the recent arrivals at the Windsor. Robert H. Stewart and a touring party of thirty among the recent arrivals at the Windsor. Robert H. Stewart and a touring party of thirty from New-York recently visited the Windsor.

Among the arrivals here are Mr. and Mrs. William Hitchcock, Miss L. H. Southard, Miss F. H. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Baldwin, L. E. Baldwin, Mrs. Mary Gregory, Miss Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Wright, Miss Wright, F. H. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. John Camdine, Mrs. E. B. Toedt, Miss Toedt, Miss R. B. Hellbrun, Mr. and Mrs. A. Falk, Edwin Falk, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Alexander and family, A. C. Denman, Miss Denman and Mr. and Mrs. Littell.

THE RUISSEAUMONT.

Lake Placid, N. Y., July 29 (Special).-A ping pong tournament has been one of the features of the week at the Rulsseaumont. Among the young people participating in the sport were Miss J. Walter, Miss Howard, Miss Hamlin, Miss Walter, Miss E. Howard, Miss Matthew, Miss Corinth. Miss Hubbell, Miss Krumbholz, Miss Germain, Miss Ely. T. T. Ramsdell, jr., Albert De Silver and Sheldon Tolles.

Interest in boating on Lake Placid and the future of the Lake Placid Yacht Club, of which future of the Lake Piacid Yacht Club, of which T. Edmund Krumbhoiz, proprietor of the Ruisseaumont, is treasurer, continues to grow among the guests. Henry Dangler, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Theodore N. Ely, of Philadelphia, have just put new high power motor boats on the lake. Even the young ladies have caught the launch fever, and Miss Ely and Miss Pardee, of Philadelphia, are among those becoming expert in their management.

their management. their management.

As chairman of the entertainment and regatta committees T. Edmund Krumbholz is planning to make the regatta next mouth a complete success. He has appointed this committee to assist

The bowling alleys have been well patronized. The hotel baseball team also played some interesting games with teams from Blooming-dale, Saranac Lake and Loon Lake. The Blooming-dale, Saranac Lake and Loon Lake. The Blooming-dale team was defeated by a score 2.2 6 to 5.

Mrs. James Wattie and Miss Jeanette Robb are here as the guests of Mrs. Wattie's son, J. A. Wattie, of Shanghai, China.

E. Stein, of New-York, has Joined his family here for the summer. G. G. Frelinghuysen, the Rev. Dr. Christan, Miss Frelinghuysen and Miss Pratt, of Moss Ledge Camp, made up a coaching party visiting here this week.

Recent arrivals from New-York include Mrs. A. B. Van Deusen, Miss F. W. Van Deusen, Mrs. S. E. Fuller, Miss Alice G. Fuller, Mrs. Robert P. Huntington, P. Rushmore, Miss S. I. Tripler, Miss M. C. Kimsey, Mrs. Curtis E. Munn and Miss Amy Angelus.

THE WINDSOR.

Elizabethtown, N. Y., July 29 (Special).—

their flapjacks in the most thoroughly approved backwoods fashion.

A party recently arrived from New-York in-dudes Mrs. A. J. Cole, Frances Younger, Mrs. A. J. Mace, the Misses Leila and Gladys Mace. Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Hamilton, of Englewood, N. J., who is here with Sinclair Hamilton for the season.

T. B. Rice is back at the inn. William A. Mearan and family, of Washington, have occupied Balsam Cottage for the season. Other recent arrivals include Mrs. A. B. Lukens, of Philadelphia; William F. Lynn, of Rochester; Mrs. J. G. Buckley, Mrs. O. H. Story, of Chestnut Hill, Mass.; Mrs. A. B. Van Deusen and Miss Van Deusen, of New-York, and Mrs. E. T. Hilyer, Miss Elsie Hilyer and Hugh Reilly, of Washington.

WESTPORT INN.

Westport, N. Y., July 29 (Special).-One of the most pleasant affairs of the season was the cotillon given here this evening by Mr. and Mrs.

A flapjack party, given by Wister Heald, of Lynchburg, Va., proved a jolly affair. A number of the young people here comprised the company, among them being the Misses Keen, Stockwell, Rice and Morris and Messers. Jones, Moller, Stetson and Coleman. After a launch ride about the lake, the party landed and baked and ate their flapjacks in the most thoroughly approved backwoods fashion.

A party recently arrived from New-York includes Mrs. A L. Cole, Frances Younger, Mrs.

Bark, Tela Ridge cottage.

Recent New-York, at Pine Ridge cottage.

Recent New-York arrivals at the inn include Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. H. Bulley, Mrs. L. H. Crary, Miss Crasper, Fred J. Robinson, F. W. Pope, F. H. Parks, Warren Curtis, ir., G. F. Underwood, Samuel K. Probasco, Miss Helen M. Scoville, Miss Marion White, Miss Amy Scoville, Miss Louise Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Milliken, Miss Crasper, Fred J. Robinson, F. Underwood, Samuel K. Probasco, Miss Helen M. Scoville, Miss Marion White, Miss Amy Scoville, Miss Crasper, Fred J. Robinson, F. Underwood, Samuel K. Probasco, Miss Helen M. Scoville, Miss Marion White, Miss Amy Scoville, Miss Crasper, Fred J. Robinson, F. Underwood, Samuel K. Probasco, Miss Helen M. Scoville, Miss Marion White, Miss Amy Scoville, Miss Crasper, Fred J. Robinson, F. Underwood, Samuel K. Probasco, Miss Helen M. Scoville, Miss Marion White, Miss Amy Scoville, Miss Crasper, Fred J. Robinson, F. Underwood, Samuel K. Probasco, Miss Helen M. Scoville, Miss Marion White, Miss Amy Scoville, Miss Crasper, Fred J. Robinson, F. Underwood, Samuel K. Probasco, Miss Helen M. Scoville, Miss Marion White, Miss Amy Scoville, Miss Marion White, Miss Amy Scoville, Miss Marion White, Miss Amy Scoville, Miss Miss Crasper, Fred J. Robinson, F. Underwood, Samuel K. Probasco, Miss Helen M. Scoville, Miss Marion White, Miss Amy Scoville, Miss Miss Crasper, Fred J. Robinson, F. Underwood, Samuel K. Probasco, Miss Helen M. Scoville, Miss Miss Crasper, Fred J. Robinson, F. H. Bulley, Mrs. L. H. Crary, Miss Crasper, Fred J. Robinson, F. Edyth E. Milliken, John I. Buck, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Comstock, Mrs. H. A. Dunn, J. C. Smillie, Mrs. G. H. Butler, Miss A. H. Alberton, Mrs. John G. Broughton, F. H. Parks, Warren Curtis, jr., G. F. Underwood and Mr. and Mrs. Theo-dore Townsend.

THE GRAND VIEW.

Lake Placid, July 29 (Special).-W. A. Peffer, the Populist leader of Kansas, is among the recent arrivals at the Grand View. Mr. Peffer is accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. J. S. Mc-Chesney, and her two children. Colonel F. Masters, of the executive staff of the Elmira State Reformatory, is another recent arrival here.

A number of New-York people have arrived recently, among them being Mrs. Denis O'Brien, the Misses Mary E., Helen M. and Josephine G. O'Brien and Denis R. O'Brien, Samuel Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. D. Schnakenberg, Miss Schnackenberg and Master Schnackenberg, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dealy, Miss Dealy, Miss Emma Dealy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Sylvester and daughter, J. B. Rose, L. E. Houck, Francis

